

Ruby Bridges Activity chart - Activities	Curriculum Connection	HCL Operational & Educational Support:
Ruby Bridges Walk to School Day Date: Usually November 14th 2026 officially on a Friday -Nov 13 Can be done in November (on nearest school day or other day) Website: https://rubybridges.foundation/walk-to-school-day/ National walk to school day Encouraged by SRTS PA and nationally https://saferoutespartnership.org/2026-ruby-bridges-walk-school-day-application-now-open/	Connects to existing lessons already taught at other times: • Ruby Bridges unit- Berwyn School Fight PA history unit or other ELA/Social Studies civil rights units How the walk reinforces curriculum • Provides an experiential civil-rights activity tied to pre/prior learning. • Offers a “refresher” on equity, courage, and civic engagement themes. • Supports literacy through StoryWalk reading panels. • Introduces SRTS as a new applied civics/health concept.	• Serve as volunteer organizers; coordinate adult volunteers with clearances. • Develop promotional materials to spread the word about the event -Coordinate with community, township, and police for walk participation. • Identify and map meeting points • Provide sample letters for principals, township, and families. • Provide banners, bags, and Ruby Bridges logo materials. • Supply discussion questions for teachers and students. • Provide VRU (Vulnerable Road User) safety information. PennDOT-aligned VRU lesson plan for Health/PE teachers. Parent video for safety review before the walk.
StoryWalk “I am Ruby Bridges” Route placed along sidewalks or track at agreed location	• Reinforces literacy through reading panels. • Connects civil-rights content to physical movement. • Supports reflection activities after the walk and civil engagement.	• Obtain permissions for use, Install and remove the Ruby Bridges Story Walk (23 panels) at agreed location. • Route planning and signage placement. • Discussion prompts for teachers. (enclosed)